

SOLD! Penthouse T1, with total privacy, located on the top floor in a building with elevator and garage. The apartment is originally a T2, and is easily transformed to the original format. This property has great care to detail, and is very well estimated both inside as well as outside. It has a large living room with lounge and dining area with access to balcony overlooking the sea. There are two well equipped bathrooms, hall, bedroom and fully equipped kitchen. It has air-conditioning and heating. The terrace is an extension of the home as it is equipped and decorated to enjoy this private space. It has a fish lake, sculptures, lamps and the sea to the south, the city and the hills to the north are seen pleasantly from everywhere on this terrace. In the garage is a parking place, and there is a snack bar in the building. The property is located close to the recreational facilities of Quinta do Infante. This property is a great option for the discerning customer wanting a private space for their own wellbeing.
